

Patrick White

Modernist impact / Critical futures

23-25 June 2010

Institute of English Studies
University of London

Call for papers

This international conference will forge new perspectives on the work of Patrick White, winner of the 1973 Nobel Prize for Literature.

Invited speakers from around the world will explore White's impact in Australia, America, Britain, Europe, and Asia and speculate on critical futures for White and for literary modernism.

Proposals for papers are sought showcasing new research on all aspects of White's life and writing with conclusions directed towards the future of White studies. Relevant papers on international modernism will also be considered. Email abstract and short bio to ian.r.henderson@kcl.ac.uk

Deadline: 10 September 2009

A grant competition, sponsored by Australian Literature at the University of Sydney, will assist one postgraduate/early career researcher to travel to the conference from Australia. Contact robert.dixon@usyd.edu.au

Conference supported by:

Menzies Centre for Australian Studies, King's College London
Australian Literature at the University of Sydney
Institute of English Studies, University of London
British Australian Studies Association